

Ua mau ke ea o
ka aina i ka pono.

The life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness.

Hawaii state motto

Individually answer the following questions:

1. What is meant by 'life of the land'?
2. What does 'perpetuate' mean? If you're unsure, guess by looking at the rest of the sentence. (It's okay if you don't know)
3. What is 'righteousness'?

Venn Diagram: State Motto

1. In the bubble for “state motto” on your diagram, write down what you think the motto means. Make a list of words, concepts, feelings, etc. that you associate with it.

4. In the bubble for “Language Builds Identity and Perpetuates Culture” on your diagram, write down ideas you have about this article. Make a list of words, concepts, feelings, etc. that you associate with it.

Venn Diagram: Making Connections

- ▶ Take a few minutes to make some connections between the different pieces of media. Consider all the overlaps except for the one in the middle (which merges all four things together). You may complete this on the back of your paper if there isn't enough room on your bubbles.

Connections to make:

- ▶ Motto and Hawaii '78
- ▶ Motto and Video
- ▶ Motto and Article
- ▶ Hawaii '78 and Video
- ▶ Hawaii '78 and Article
- ▶ Video and Article

Webbing: Tying it all together

- ▶ With a partner, fill out the very center space by identifying what all four of these things (motto, song, article, poem) have in common. You may write this on the back of your paper since this space is so small, just be sure it is clearly labeled.

Exit Slip

1. One new thing you learned. OR one thing that surprised you.
2. One thing you'd like to know more about OR one question you have.
3. What does the state motto mean to you? Has your interpretation changed since the beginning of class? How so?
